THE SENIOR CLASS
MONMOUTH HIGH SCHOOL

Dedication

We, the seniors of '54 do dedicate this '54 Eagle to Mrs. Phyllis Houk, with deep appreciation for her unselfish contribution as our class sponsor for the past three years. We do this because we are grateful to her for....

Phyllis Houk

Patience which we did not often deserve.
Helping us with our problems, great or small.
Uielding so much of her effort and time.
Lending a helping hand, which we often needed.
Love and interest in all our activities.
Implicit faith in our class of '54.
Somehow, making us believe in ourselves.

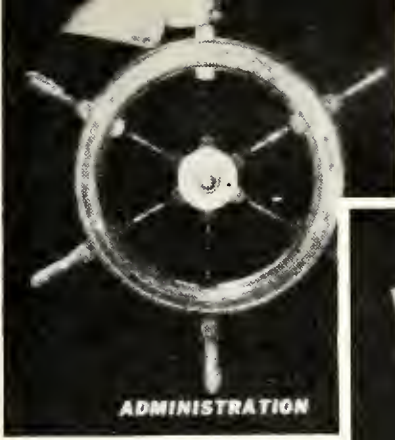

Having faith when we had given up.
Opening the door to greater achievements.
Using her best to lift our morale.
Kindness for her never-failing help in completing our yearbook.

The ideals that you have created in your school life will stand each of you in good stead in the years to come. May this annual always be remembered as a token of the best in your life as well as a treasure chest of your school activities.

We who remain are proud of the achievements of you seniors; we salute you and wish you Godspeed in the challenging years ahead.

This year, the boys of our senior class seem to rule the roost in the executive department. Our president, Mart, is a short, bashful blonde who just loves to conduct business meetings. Our vice president, Dee, has great hopes for a bright future and has his plans well in mind, hey Ruth? Delbert Witte, "Scribble Fingers" at our class meetings, deserves hearty congratulations for a wonderful job of handling our cage business. Our treasurer, Carl Becker, also deserves a hearty pat on the back. Wait! don't hit him too hard; he's a little fellow, you know.

All in all, these boys have done a swell job! Their fine spirit will be remembered long, we're sure.

Class Will

We, the Seniors (1954) of Monmouth High School being of sound mind, body, and memory do declare this to be our last will and testament:

TO THE FACULTY:

We will the satisfaction of being a stepping stone in our career.

TO THE JUNIORS:

We will our ability to stick together as a class.

TO THE SOPHOMORES:

We will our Senior Dignity in two years.

TO THE FRESHMEN:

We will our ability to make enough money for your Senior trip.

I, Carl Becker, will my ability to find girls to Ronnie Bleeke and not to get spankings to Fritz Macke.

I, Phyllis Bleeke, will my ability to wear saddles and bobby socks to a ball game to Pat McCagg and my pleasant personality to Barbara Carr.

I, Leona Bohnke, will the satisfaction of my natural brown hair to Janet Grandstaff and my ability to be able to make a speech to David Brown.

I, Martin Bulmahn, will my shortness to Norbert Witte, and my ability to do nothing in study hall to Shirley Bleeke.

I, Richard Bultemeyer, will my ability to flirt with girls to Kenny Beiberichand, my ability to acquire food from the Home Ec girls to Ray McDougall.

I, Bernice Ehlerding, will my ability to be a good athlete to Marilyn Hutchison, and my ability to get a man to Deloris Gallmeyer.

I, Alice Fleming, will my editorship to an unlucky Junior and my ability to pin up my hair to Betty Bultemeyer.

I, Virginia Gerke, will my ability to study hard to Roger Heller and to always have my lessons prepared to Don Christianer.

I, Richard Harvey, will my physique to Byron Linker and my ability to swipe candy from the cage to Marlene Bultemeyer.

I, Harry Myers, will my old Chevrolet to Dale Busick and my ability to play basketball to Larry Bittner.

I, Donna Schieferstein will my ability to behave on a date to certain Junior girls who need it and my fountain pen to any one who has ink to fill it.

I, Carroll Scott, will my quietness to Nicky Secaur and ability to keep away from girls to Paul Fuhrman.

I, Violet Sheets, will my feminine ways to Betty Andrews, and my ability to work in the office the last period of the day to some clock-watcher in study hall.

I, Larry Stevens, will my ability to stay out of mud roads to Larry Marker and to stay in good with the teachers to Betty Dearn.

I, Gretchen Thieme, will my pep to the first team yell leaders and my ability to sleep without snoring in the study hall to any ambitious student.

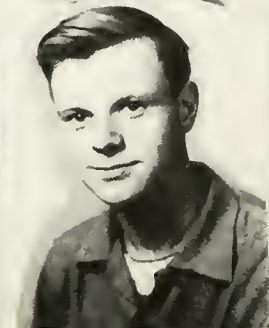

I, Marcella Thieme, will my ability to wear harmonizing clothes to Dorothy Lambert and ability to blush to Stewart Schnepf.

I, Violet Walchle, will my straight posture to Audrey Grandstaff and to Betty Andrews and Betty Dearn, I will my ability to sit down at a ball game.

I, Delbert Witte, will my Chevy to James Schmiede to take Shelva Miller to the movies and my ability to make errors in typing to Don Gerke.

A Message From Mr. Holt

In years to come, I believe the pictures in this fine annual will be a personal treasure of all. I know the boys will be remembered not only for their good records they have compiled, but also for their good competitive spirit and sportsmanship throughout their high school careers.
